On January 15, 79 Recruits joined the Regiment. They are: 26 Northerners, 26 Southerners, 11 Midlanders, nine Westcountrymen, four Scotsmen, two Welshmen, and one Irishman.

Of the nine Westcountrymen, no less than eight (Hartrey, Helliwell, Hine, Morgan, Tucker, McIntosh, Savage, and Stephens) are Devonians. The ninth (Nicholls) comes from Bristol.

Our Irishman (McKnight) hails from Omagh. Our Welshmen are from Caernarvon (Bartlett) and Cardiff (Benson).

There seems to be fewer Scots than expected, and only one Londoner and two "Brummies." No "Scouses" at all!

Then again, the six "Geordies" will say they are worth all the other 73 put together.
